

Restylane®

How long does Restylane® last?

Studies have shown that Restylane® generally lasts for six months. Follow-up treatments are typically scheduled at six month intervals.

What areas of the face do you inject Restylane®?

Restylane® is typically used below the cheeks. Around the mouth, nasolabial folds (the lines from the corners of the nose to the mouth), and the lips are the most common areas treated.